Playing as a True Freshman, JL, (nicknamed District 0), has proven what it takes to be a leader having earned the starting role his sophomore season and has been a starter since then. He has statistically proven to be one of the best defensive backs in the country ranking first in Solo Tackles in all of college football at (49) through week 7. In addition to being one of the best open field tacklers, he was awarded Athlon Preseason All-MW- Fourth Team. The overall consensus is that no one is safe when District "0" has his sights set on them.

"I THINK HE'S REALLY DEVELOPED FROM LAST YEAR IN TERMS OF HIS ABILITY TO TRANSITION AND CHANGE DIRECTION FOR A BIGGER GUY, IF HE STAYS ON THIS TRACK, HE WILL CONTINUE TO GROW OVER THE COURSE OF THE YEAR AND HE'LL END UP HAVING A TREMENDOUS SEASON."

- Andy Avalos (Head Coach BSU)
